

Microscopy

Core Facilities

Scanning Electron Microscopy

The scanning electron microscope available at IBEC is highly used for investigating surface morphology and topography of different samples in the bioengineering field. We image surfaces at the nanoscale, with the help of our complementary services of chemical fixation, critical point drying and gold coating, which allow taking images of biological samples with ultra high resolution.

www.ibecbarcelona.eu/corefacilities microscopy@ibecbarcelona.eu